

Call for nominations for the DWU Teaching Excellence Awards 2025

The following criteria, which draw on the literature on good teaching (Hammer et al., 2010) are used.

The nominated lecturer

- Teaches in ways that inspire and engage students and helps students to become lifelong learners;
- Assists students in and out of lecture room/laboratory;
- Provides good prompt assessment and constructive feedback to students;
- Is fair and respects student differences;
- Makes good use of online opportunities and provides up-to-date resources;
- Is supportive and works well with academic colleagues
- Demonstrates a commitment to teaching and willingness to be called on if needed;
- Demonstrates an understanding of the scholarship of teaching and learning

Any DWU academic staff member who teaches at least two units a year in any mode of study (full-time, flexible learning or online), on or through any campus, can be nominated.

DWU President and Vice Presidents are not eligible for nomination.

A group of at least three students must nominate the lecturer.

The lecturer must agree to the nomination.

The nominations closing date is Friday, 24th October 2025.

Please scan the QR code or click on the link to download the nomination form

<https://rb.gy/4b2o9z>